Barton W. Stone Memorial Services.

Every member of the Christian church in Bourbon and the adjoining counties will be pleased to know that a memorial service in honor of our great pioneer preacher, Barton W. Stone, will be held at the celebrated and historic Cane Ridge Christian church, on Sunday afternoon, September 26, at 2:30 o'clock. Elder McNeill, of Winchester, will deliver the principal address and will be followed by short talks by some of Bourbon county's best workers. Let every Christian worker come and bring their friends. It will be an inspiration for you to spend an afternoon at this historic spot and listen to the stirring addresses and old time songs. Don't forget the date. Sunday, September 26th, 2:30. Come.

An Invitation.

All the progressive housewives of Paris and Bourbon are invited to call at my store and see the demonstrator on October the first, who will remain one week to demonstrate the manifold advantages of the Malleable Steel Range, the world's greatest range. Come and see.

The Last Game.

The Paris League base ball team played their final game of the season Sunday afternoon at White Park with a strong team from Cynthiana, the score standing 8 to 2 in favor of Paris. The usual admission fee was charged, the proceeds going to the players. Six hundred people were present.

Swearingen, of this city, pitched for the visitors and he received good support a different story could be told. Winchell was in the box for the locals and put over an excellent assortment of curves that proved puzzling to the visitors. The following is score by innings:

Paris.....2 3 0 1 0 0 2 x-8
Cynthiana.....0 1 0 0 0 0 1-2

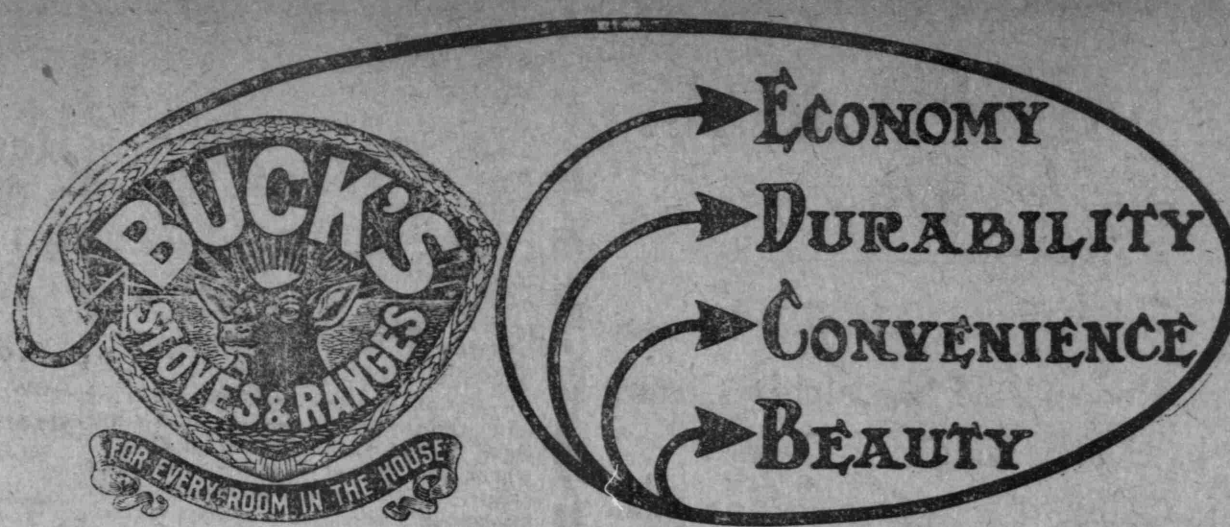

Among the players of the Cynthiana team was Freddie Flick, the fast short stop of Cincinnati. He will be remembered as one of Desha Lucas' fast team of several years ago. He fielded and batted Sunday in his usual brilliant style and was given the glad hand by a number of old friends and admirers.

Federation of Commercial Clubs

At its meeting Friday at Lexington, the convention of Central Kentucky Commercial Clubs adopted a constitution and by-laws for the Central Kentucky Federation of Commercial Clubs the establishment of which was the object of the convention. It was decided that, whenever as many as ten clubs have approved the constitution and by-laws, the chairman of this convention shall call a meeting, at which the federation will be permanently organized.

The annual dues were fixed at $10, and life memberships at $100. The federation is to hold annual meetings in October of each year. The commercial clubs represented at the convention and which have become members of the federation, are those of Carlisle, Cynthiana, Paris, Georgetown, Lexington, Somerset, Danville, Winchester, Owenton, Nicholasville and Midway. The commercial clubs of a number of other Central Kentucky towns are also expected to join the new organization.

Among the interesting features of Friday's sessions of the convention which closed the same evening, were addresses by State Senator Joseph Bosworth, of Middlesboro, on "The Good Roads Amendment," and the speech of Don C. Edwards, of London, on the improvement of the Kentucky River for commercial purposes.
